The project is aimed at disseminating information on selected issues related to equal opportunities (with special focus on violence against women and the "Istanbul Convention" - a campaign) in the regions of the Czech Republic through the grassroots membership network of the Czech Women's Union. Furthermore this project is designed to strengthen the professional knowledge and skills our individual members across the country need to be able to fully engage in these issues and to work effectively with other relevant organizations and partner networks.
3620010	Diakonie ČCE - Středisko křesťanské pomoci v Praze	Stop Violence in Relationships	NA	21	1 987 498	80 141	Prague
Violence in relationships, where the roles of offender and victim are fixed and couple violence where the roles are changing or simultaneous moves often takes place unreported within the home. Violence which doesn't escalate enough for the police to be notified is never dealt with. Addressing violence prevents escalation for victims, relatives and children. Project Stop Violence in Relationships offers a therapeutic programme for violent persons and couples. The project includes diagnostics and research into the effectiveness of the programme and the publicity campaign.
3620013	Jako doma - Homelike	Together for women: let's talk about it	Samtok um kvennaathvarf (Island)	21	1 662 477	67 035	Czech Republic
The fundamental aim of the project is to involve female survivors of violence and socially excluded women in a number of creative (theatre, blog writing, film, commix) activities leading to prevention and tackling of violence against women. The campaign will be focused mainly on young people, on prevention of violence and on breaking gender stereotypes (involving both, victims and perpetrators). Additionally, involving a foreign partner, we will aim to broaden knowledge of the Czech NGO sector on the issue of working with perpetrators and creating campaigns.
